This document is intended to supplement bylaw, but does not replace it. In the event of a discrepancy, Students’ Union bylaw takes precedence.

1. Nominations

1.1 Acceptance of Nominations
A candidate’s nomination may be revoked if they fail to accumulate the designated amount of valid nomination signatures by the submission deadline, or if they fail to attend the mandatory candidate’s meeting or designate a proxy to attend the meeting. If the candidate is later determined to be ineligible, he or she will be disqualified.

1.2 Joke Candidates
Candidates who run under a name that is not their given name, or a reasonable derivation of their given name, will be designated joke candidates. Joke candidates are not eligible to take office if elected and are assigned a lower campaign budget. Where a joke candidate is declared victorious, the joke candidate shall be dropped from the ballot and counting shall continue.

1.3 Candidates Meeting

2.6 Donations
All donations to a campaign will be assessed fair market value by the CRO and accordingly deducted from a campaign’s total allowable expenses. This does not include general volunteer labour and widely-held expertise such as web page and poster design. If you are in doubt about fair market value, it is recommended that you consult the CRO beforehand.

2.7 Collusion
Candidates are free to endorse each other, but are prohibited from acting as a volunteer for any other candidate. Candidates are prohibited from sharing resources (i.e. tables, posters, budgets) other than universal materials, with any other candidate. Volunteers may volunteer for more than one campaign.

2.8 Student Group Interaction
Candidates and sides will be prohibited from actively participating in student group or student service events during the campaign period (in their role as a candidate or side). Candidates and campaign sides are distinct entities from student groups and should not use any influence they hold with a student group to gain an undue advantage. This does not mean that you cannot attend student group events or talk to student group executives in your capacity as a student or as candidate or side member.

If a student group or service wishes to host a forum, or if an event approaches a candidate, they will be permitted to speak and participate so long as each candidate or side receives at least 24 hours notification of the forum or event and will be afforded an equal chance to speak at it or participate in it.
3. Campaign Materials & Advertising

3.1 Material Approval
All campaign materials must be approved by the CRO prior to use. All copies of campaign materials must also be checked and counted by election staff prior to being distributed. Materials will be approved on a first-come, first-served basis with a maximum 24-hour turn-around time.

3.2 Campaign Materials
All campaign material must (1) clearly and visibility identify the candidate by full name or side; (2) include the position sought or referenda/plebis title; and (3) list the respective voting days. Failure to include proper identification may result in the removal of campaign materials.

3.3 Printed Materials
All printed campaign materials must include the “Printed at SUBprint” marker. All posters must also include the supplied Elections Office online voting notice. It is the responsibility of each candidate to ensure that this identification is present on the material before it is sent to the printer. Failure to include proper identification may result in the removal of campaign materials.

3.4 Posters and Banners
There are no limits to the total number of posters, but no candidate or side may place more than ten (10) posters in any single building (atriums will be considered half-buildings, with a limit of five (5) per atrium), and no more than one (1) banner on display in any building. Banners are greater than four (4) square feet in area, and posters are less than four (4) square feet. The maximum size for banners shall be eight (8) feet by sixteen (16) feet, as per University guidelines. The minimum distance between posters shall be ten (10) feet in all directions.

Candidates should be careful not to apply tape to surfaces that are easily damaged. Most buildings permit candidates to place posters on any brick or concrete wall. Several buildings have more restrictive regulations regarding poster approval and placement. Posters that are placed in violation of building rules will be removed without compensation, and a fine may also be imposed.

3.5 Outdoor Sign Placement

3) Video editing will be considered to have a fair market value of zero. However, value may be assessed against your campaign budget if a professional editing service is hired. Please consult the CRO if you have any questions.
4) Upon completing the video, please submit to the CRO in its finished form for final approval. Candidates are permitted to post videos on YouTube, campaign website, or campaign Facebook page. Please inform the CRO of any other platform you might wish to use, these will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis and made available for all candidates or sides.

3.7 Leaflets and Handouts
Candidates are permitted to hand out leaflets or handouts to individuals, except in locations that have solicitation policies (including the Students’ Union Building). Candidates may not leave leaflets on vacant tables, on the floor, or unattended anywhere else. Any items distributed inappropriately will be removed without compensation, and a fine may also be imposed.

3.8 Universal Materials and Fair Value Market Assessment
Universal materials include those materials for which no cost will be incurred against the candidate’s budget. Such materials may be supplied by the Elections Office and include banner paper, masking tape, packing tape, elastic bands, tacks, basic paint(s), chloroplast signs, and banner fire retardant spray. These materials are the property of the Elections Office and are for campaign purposes only. Any personal use or other inappropriate use of Elections Office material may result in penalty. As universal materials, they will be considered a personal expense and not counted towards your campaign budget. The CRO shall purchase or supply whatever basic materials they deem appropriate. The elections office shall replenish these Universal Materials as they become depleted during the elections period, where feasible. Basic materials that shall be provided include: staples, tape, lawn signs, push pins, scissors, and banner paper.

Use of computers and other mobile devices for the purpose of campaign delivery (not content creation) during the campaign period will not be considered a universal material. Each device will be assessed a fair market value of $10.00 per day (or portion thereof) during the campaign period.

A candidate or side wishing to receive a fair market value assessment in advance shall make a written request to the CRO. Fair Market Value shall be determined by the CRO within 12 hours. Candidates or sides may challenge the designation of a universal resource by submitting a complaint to the CRO within 36 hours of approval.
3.9 Printer
All printing and photocopying must be done at SUBprint, located on the lower level of SUB. The process for using SUBprint is:
1. Have the printed material approved by the CRO, who must sign the order form
2. Go to SUBprint and have them fill out an “Internal/Walk-up” order form. Explain to the Print Centre staff what you would like printed, and have them fill out the form with the specifics
3. Have your material printed
4. Have election staff count and review your printed material

3.10 Tables
Candidates are free to book tables on campus outside of the Elections Office, but must book them on their own. Candidates are cautioned against using any influence they may have with a campus group to book tables.

3.11 Classroom Speaking
Candidates must have the permission of the instructor before speaking in any classroom during class time.

3.12 Elections Forums
Any candidate who wishes to participate in forums not organized by the Elections Office must provide notification to each candidate in their contest at least 24 hours beforehand to allow them an equal opportunity to attend.

3.13 Campus Media – Gateway and CJSR

A brief biography/platform statement (maximum 250 words), photograph (maximum 150 pixels wide by 200 pixels tall), and website link from each candidate can be posted on the SU Elections website. Candidates should be prepared to email their submissions immediately following the Candidates Meeting.

The SU Elections website will remain operational throughout voting days.

The deadline for submitting website supplement material is Friday, March 15 @ 12:00. Please send this information to the CRO at cro@su.ualberta.ca. A notice of “No Information Received” will be placed next to candidates who do not submit website supplement material.

3.16 Internet and Email Policy
The content of candidate websites should be provided to the CRO for review prior to being made publicly available (submit a material approval request and provide the private web address (with password) that the website can be viewed at) Candidates are reminded that websites must not go public until the start of campaigning.

“Mass emails” to unofficial groups (e.g. lists of your friends from your personal address book) are not permitted. It is permissible, however, to send mass emails to anyone already acting as your campaign volunteer. Emails to official University and student group mailing lists (list-servs) will be considered, given that the following procedures are adhered to:

1. Candidates who wish to send an email must contact the administrator of the mailing list, requesting permission to send the campaign message.

2. If approval is granted, the candidate must forward a copy of this approval to the CRO, who will then send a message to all candidates in that particular contest, including the candidate that initiated the request.

3. Each candidate will have 24 hours to submit to the CRO a campaign message no longer than 250 words.

4. The CRO will then send an email containing all campaign messages to the mailing list. Under no circumstances are individual candidates permitted to send a campaign message directly to any mailing lists.

The use of forums, web-boards, or any other similar Internet-based mediums for the purposes of campaigning is prohibited without the express permission of the CRO. Requests will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Remember that, just like on campus, candidates are responsible for any inappropriate campaigning by their volunteers on the Internet. The CRO reserves the right to revoke any candidate’s right to use Internet-based mediums as a campaign tool, if it is determined that the above regulations have not been followed. Further penalties may also be assessed.
3.17 Social Media Policy

Social media platforms may only be used for campaign purposes within the campaign period. Like physical materials, campaign materials used online must be approved by the CRO before being made public. Consequently, we ask that you adhere to the following procedures:

1. Candidates wishing to use social media must create a new online presence from scratch.
   - This means you cannot rename a previously used campaign page on Facebook or swap a handle on Instagram.

4. Discussion boards and “wall posts” will be monitored by the Elections Office, and posts deemed inappropriate may be removed.

3.18 Material Removal
